Dear Beloved Mothers of Karura Community Chapel,

As we gather this Sunday under the theme “Resilience in Motherhood,” I want to take a moment to honor you—our mothers, mothers in waiting, and those who carry the sacred sorrow of loss. You are deeply seen, loved, and appreciated.

Motherhood is a journey of immense strength. It is not about having everything in place, but about faithfully holding on when life feels overwhelming. It is shown in the quiet midnight prayers, the tired but loving smiles, and the sacrificial grace you pour out daily.

Your resilience reflects the faith of those who have gone before you. I am reminded of Paul’s words in 2 Timothy 1:5 (NIV):
“I am reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also.”

What a powerful testimony—that the faith in you today is building a legacy for generations to come.

You are like Mary, who said “yes” to God’s calling. Like Sarah, who held on through long years of waiting. Like the Proverbs 31 woman, who is clothed in strength and dignity and laughs at the days to come.

Thank you for showing up. Thank you for loving deeply. Thank you for leaning on Jesus even when the road is hard.

May God continue to strengthen, comfort, and refresh you.

You are a gift to us all.

With love and honor ❤️,
Pastor Ednah Kimani

Care Needs

Let's remember and commit to prayer:

1. Rachel and her mum. Rachel has been the primary caregiver to her parents—may God strengthen and sustain them.
2. Njoki's mum, for healing and restoration.
3. Mary Nganga, who lost her daughter Anastasia in a car accident on Monday while returning to school. Anastasia was a student at Tumaini.
4. An anonymous parent whose son has been in rehab for five months—pray for strength, healing, and breakthrough.
5. Wambui Kamunge of Shekinah CLG, who lost her grandmother who raised her and is set to be buried in Ol Kalou.
6. Dr. Mala's housekeeper, Nyambura, whose adult son was attacked and badly beaten by unknown gangs.
7. Ann Wachira's mum, who was taken back to HDU after suffering a seizure—pray for healing and peace.
8. Cornelius, whose mum is in ICU due to BP complications. He is travelling to Kakamega to be with his family.
9. Hellen Kiiru from Lavington Ujirani CLG, who is currently hospitalized—pray for complete recovery.
10. Sardan, who has been admitted at Avenue Hospital.
11. Betty Githinji and her mum, who is currently in hospital—pray for strength and healing
12. David, our Worship and Community Site Manager, who is unwell.

May the Lord, our healer and comforter, be near to each one of them.

For any care support, please call Patricia Kimanzi on the Care Line: 0721 766016.

18 Ex Candidates. 1 powerful week. Eternal impact.

As part of our annual missions week, the ex candidates program (EMERGE) graduates had the privilege of visiting Nyandarua GK Prison. It wasn't just about outreach; it was about listening, learning, and loving. Our young adults created space for stories to be heard, and the gospel to be shared. We celebrate that 7 men gave their lives to Christ!

This is what happens when the Church shows up.
