GOOD AT WORK

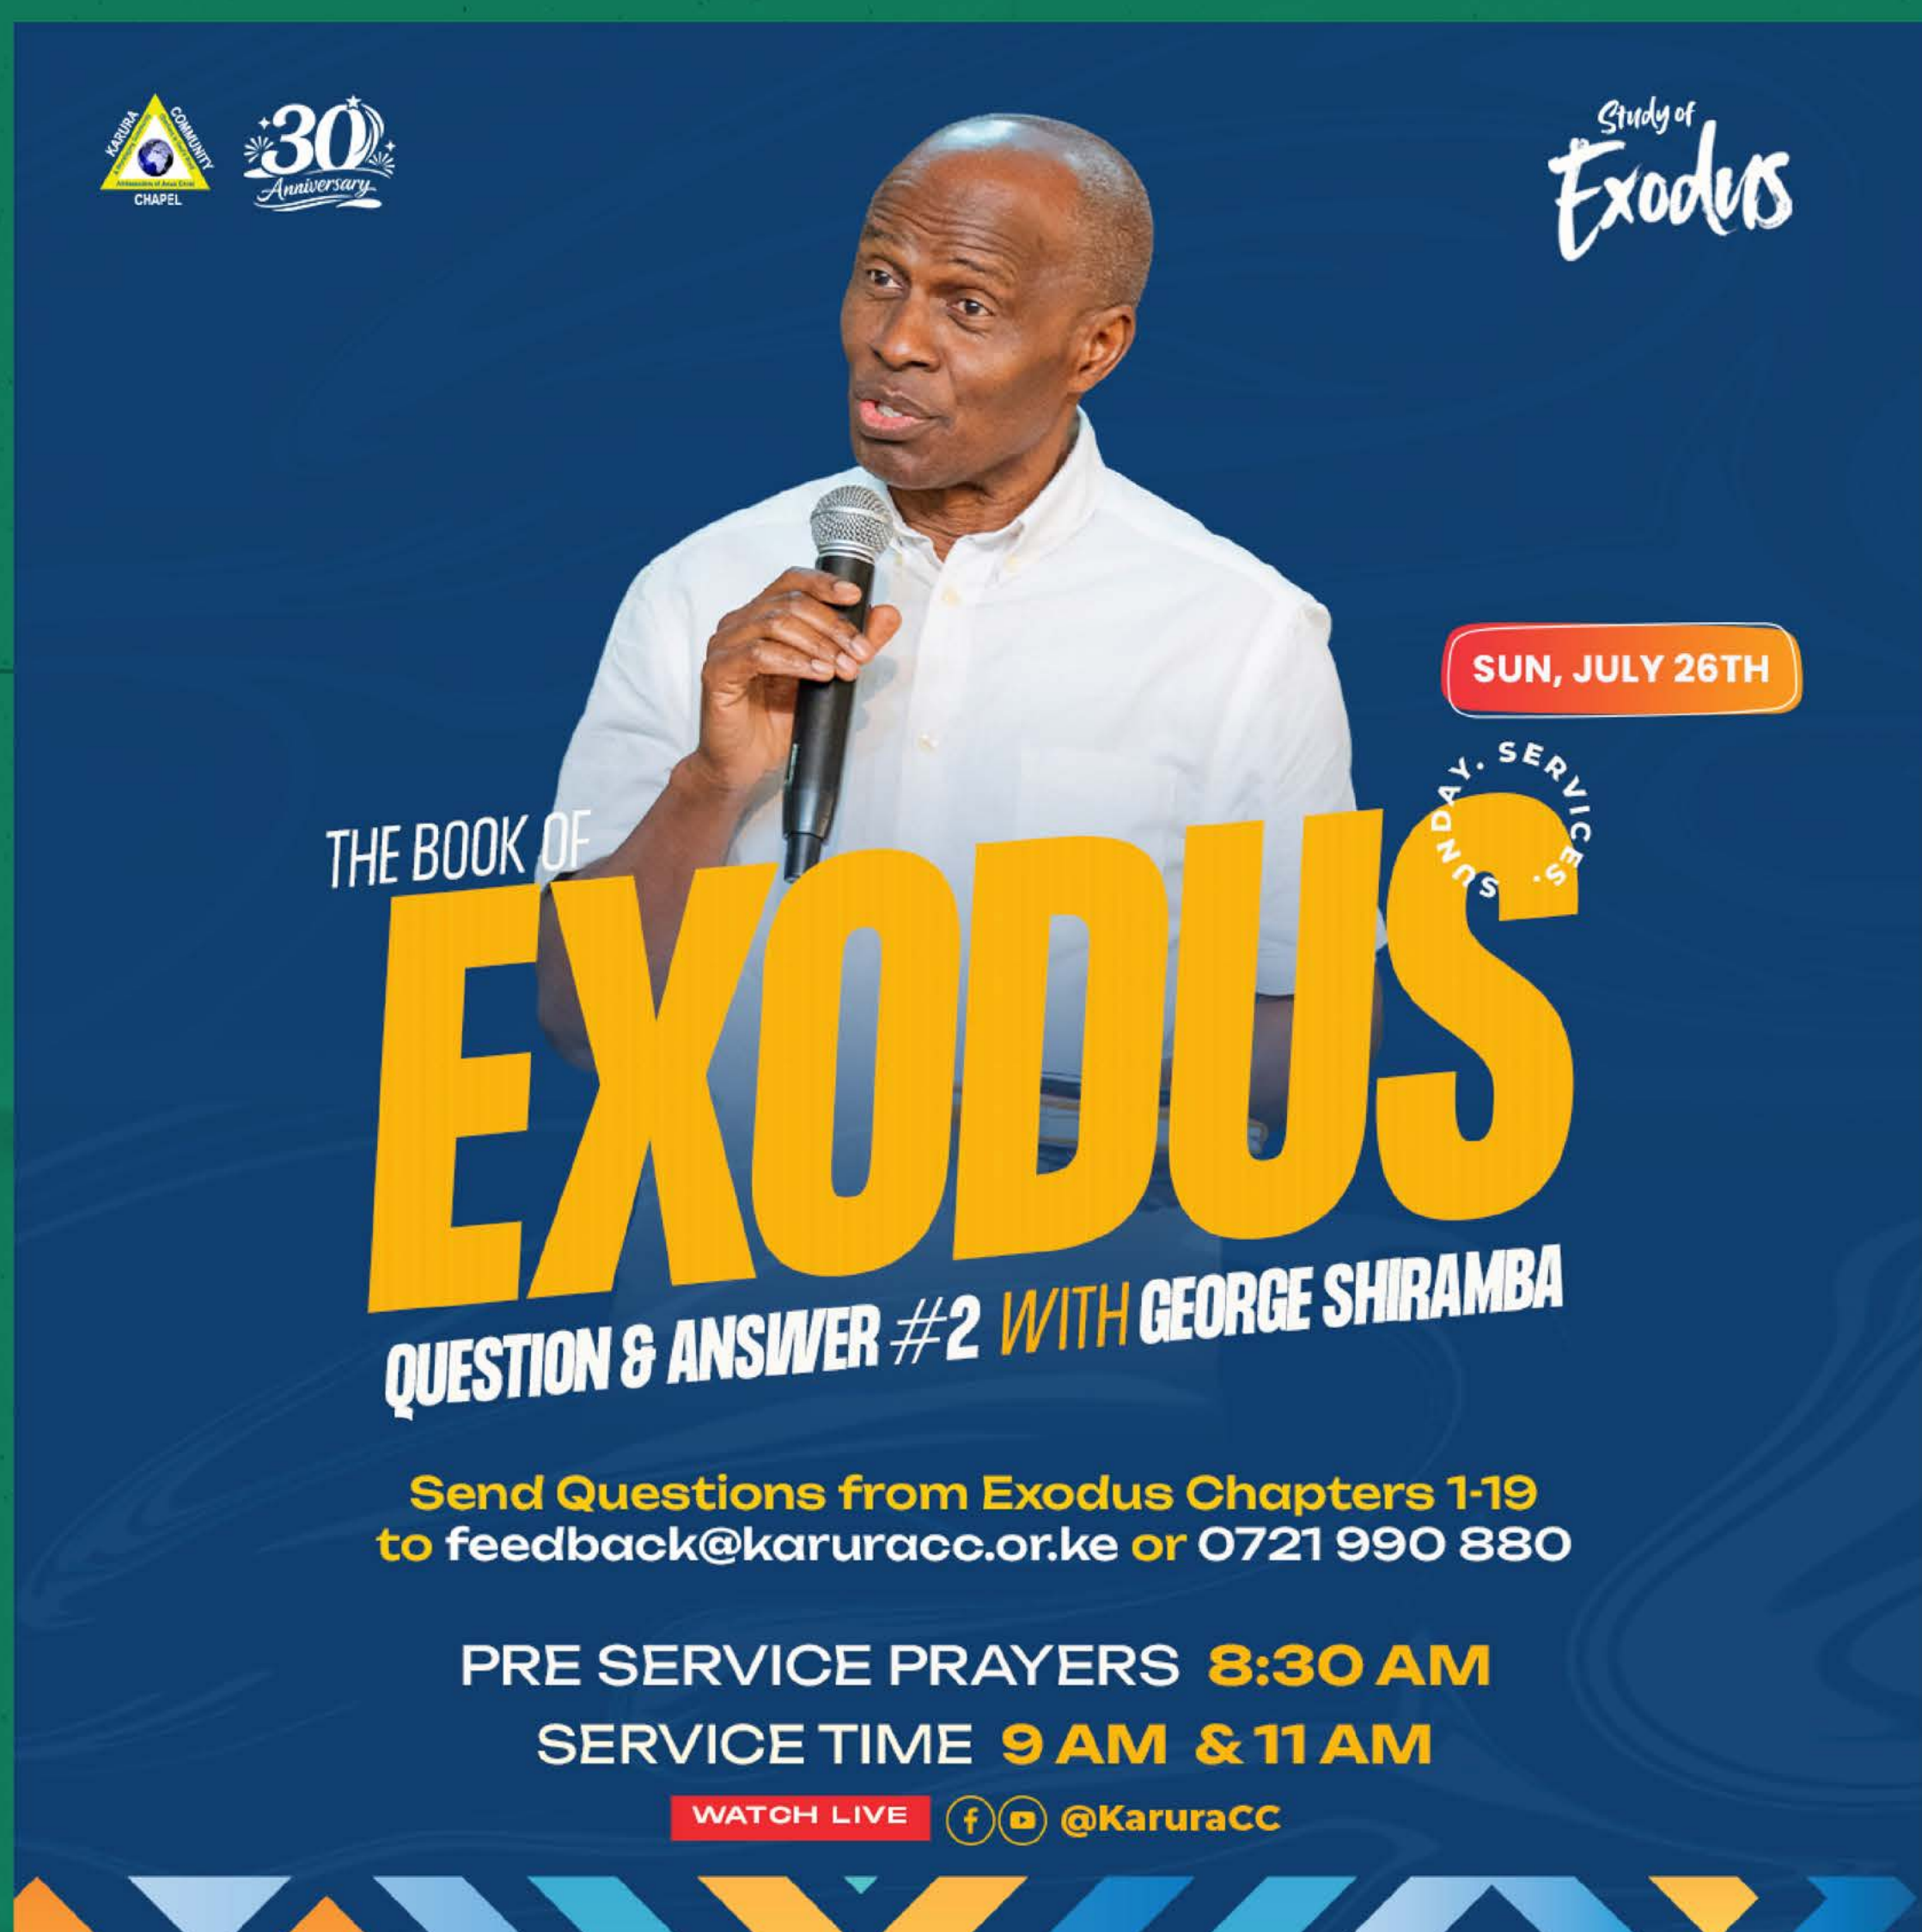

A Season of Faithfulness

“I want to give glory to God because He has been faithful to me. In March 2025, I lost my job. I trusted in God's grace and believed I would not remain out of work for long. After taking a month to rest, I began applying for jobs. As a member of Karura Voices, I also immersed myself in ministry, using the time I had to serve. Months passed, and none of my applications were successful. Financial pressures grew as rent arrears accumulated, school fees became difficult to pay, and daily life became a challenge. Even so, my hope in God remained steadfast. Throughout that season, I continued serving on the Karura Community Chapel Worship Team. Karura Community Chapel became more than a church to me, it became my family. Even during one of the darkest seasons of my life, it remained a place of joy, peace, and belonging. My ministry leader ensured that I, along with many others, received food support through what I believe was the Dorcas Ministry. My friends on the worship team also stood by me with encouragement, practical support, and a listening ear whenever I needed one. As a member of Karura Community Chapel, I never walked alone. I was surrounded by people who loved me and embraced my children as their own. We laughed together, cried together, and prayed together. When I was discouraged, they lifted me up. Through this community, God showed me the love of Christ in practical and tangible ways. Through their prayers and encouragement, God eventually opened the door for me to secure a new job, which also meant relocating to a different town. Looking back, my heart is filled with gratitude. What could have been an unbearable season became one I could endure because God placed such an incredible family around me. I will miss you all dearly, but I know this is not goodbye. Karura Community Chapel will always be home to me. To God alone be all the glory.”

CARE NEEDS

Let us continue to pray and offer support to these loved ones.

- Nancy Ngari and Anthony Miron, whose mum went to be with the Lord. Comfort meetings are being held in Ukambani.
- The Imbwaga family (Lillian, Caroline, Anita, Phanice, Roselyne, and Rev. Chahale), who lost their dad.
- Elder Minju, who lost his sister.

For close family end-of-life care, counselling, sickness, and other care needs, please reach out to Pst Judy on 0721766016.
