GOOD AT WORK

The odds were not encouraging, but one lesson from our premarital classes kept coming back to us: oneness. We chose to face each day together, to pray, and to carry each other's burdens. The load did not disappear, but together it felt lighter. Even the financial principles we had learned helped us remain calm and united during a very challenging time. Today, by God's grace, our miracle girl is a healthy and joyful three-year-old. Every birthday reminds us of God's goodness and the value of a strong foundation. If we could encourage couples with one thing, it would be this: do not just prepare for the wedding day—prepare for the marriage, and let the Lord Jesus be at the centre of it. The investment you make today may carry you through storms you cannot yet see. We are grateful to God, to the leaders who poured into us, and to this church family.
