30TH Anniversary

THE EXODUS

FUNDRAISER

9:00AM & 11:00AM

6TH DEC 2026

01 | The Beginning

We raised the first tent with our bare hands, and our journey began in faith.

02 | The Foundation

Through prayer, sacrifice, and willing hands, we laid the foundation and watched the Worship & Community Center rise.

03 | The Legacy

What began under a temporary canvas is becoming a permanent home, an inheritance for the next generation.

Look at how far we've come

Every step has been a testament to God's faithfulness. Every prayer, sacrifice, and willing heart is building a legacy for those who will walk through these doors after us.

What is my Part in the Exodus?

Pray. Listen to the stories. See the vision. Then ask God, "What is my part?" Come with a willing heart, ready to respond!

CARE NEEDS

Let us continue to pray for and support our members and their loved ones.

- Joyce Ngarachu's mother (Crossway CLG), who is currently hospitalized and undergoing treatment.
- Margaret Opondo (Theophilus CLG) and her family, as they make arrangements to lay their sister to rest.
- Reuben Kimani's mother, as she continues to undergo medical care.
- The family of Wanjiku Mwangi, including her siblings Rahab and Peter Mwangi, following her passing to be with the Lord and as they grieve her loss.

For close family end-of-life care, counselling, sickness and other care needs, please reach out to Pst. Judy on 0721 766 016.

Becoming a Caring Community.

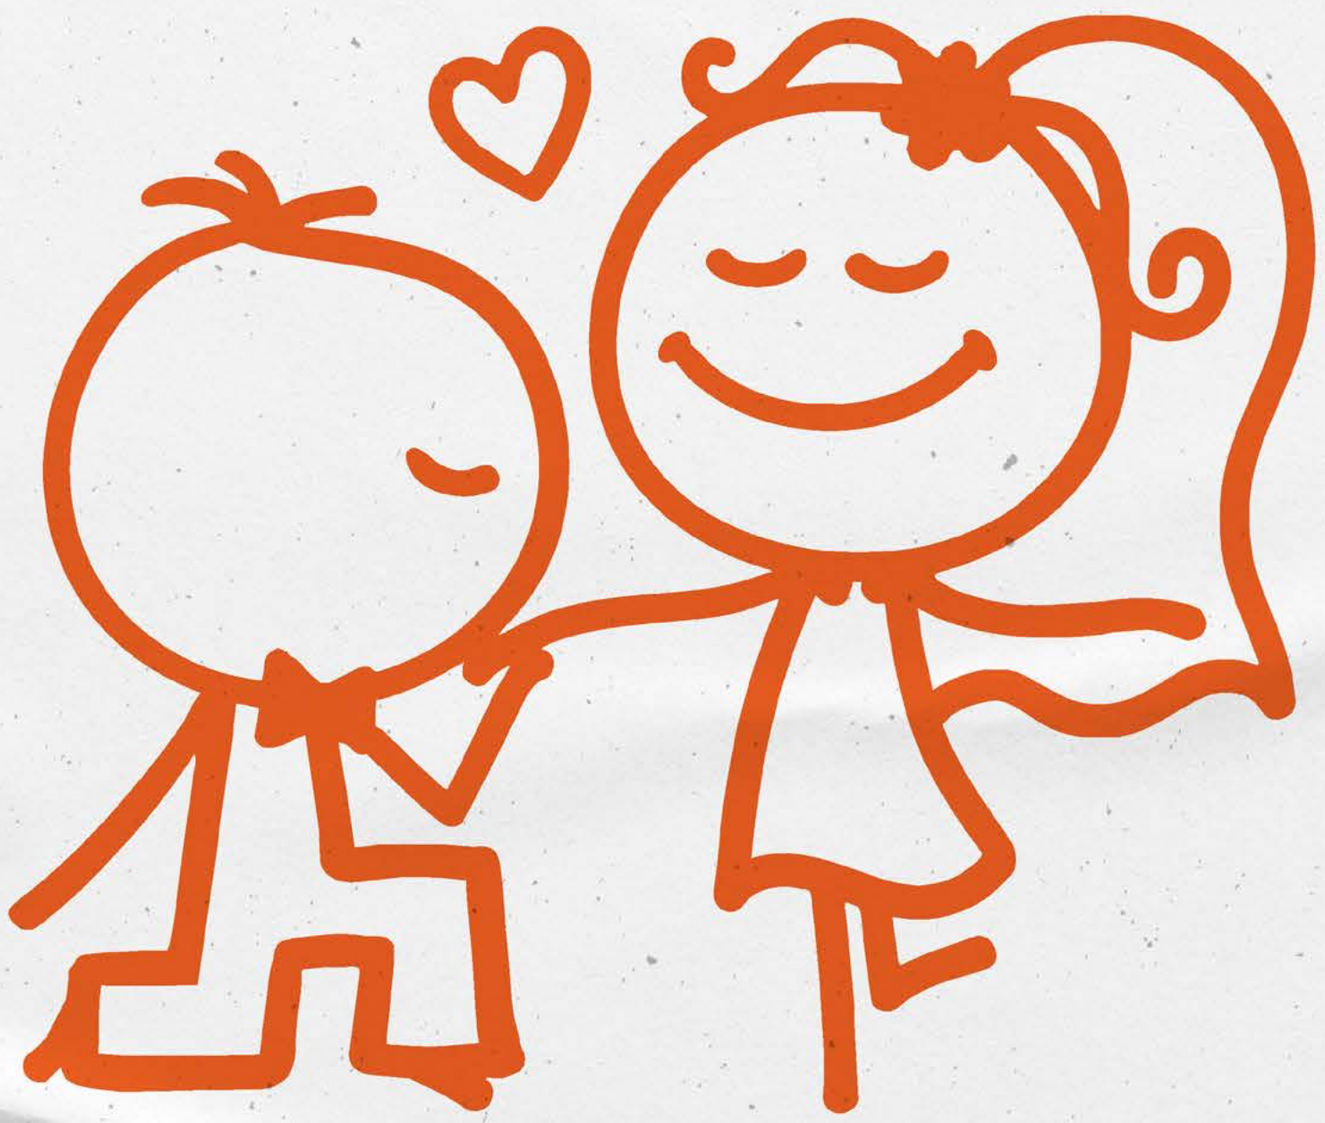

Banns of Marriage

We announce the banns of marriage between:

1. Ruth Wacuka and Elijah Mwendwa which will be held on 28th November 2026. This is the third and final announcement.

2. Angela Chepng'eno & Leonard Rono which will be held on 2nd December 2026. This is the second announcement.

If anyone has any lawful reason why these persons should not be joined in holy matrimony, please contact the church office.
