SPIRITUAL EMPHASIS CAMPAIGN

A Season of Growth & Renewal

Here at Karura CC, we have been taking part in a Spiritual Emphasis Campaign, a church-wide, concentrated time where we come together to focus on one spiritual theme.

We have arrived at the close of this special season of spiritual growth and renewal, which began on 6th September and concludes this Sunday, 8th November, by the grace of God. Having explored Commandments 1 through 4, which focus on our relationship with God, and Commandments 5 through 9, which guide our relationships with one another, we now come to the final Commandment, the 10th.

Whether you've walked with us from the beginning or are just joining us, there is still time to be part of this transformative journey. Click the buttons below to experience testimonies of what has been learnt.

BIBLE READING: EXODUS 20:17 (NIV)

"You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not _____ your neighbor's wife, or his male or female servant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor."

To covet means to _____ something that belongs to another person in a way that is _____, _____ or uncontrolled.

1. Coveting exposes the condition of our _____.

- It affects how we _____ our neighbours
- Coveting is _____.

"When _____ in the plunder a beautiful robe from Babylonia, two hundred shekels of silver and a bar of gold weighing fifty shekels, I COVETED THEM and _____"

Coveting shows we don't _____ God.

2. We desire other things more than _____.

"My people have committed two sins: They have forsaken me, the spring of living water, and have dug their own cisterns, broken cisterns that cannot hold water." Jer. 2:13 (NIV)

"You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our heart is restless until it rests in you."

Augustine of Hippo

3. Find Jesus more _____.

The antidote to coveting is not trying harder; it is learning to see _____as more precious than anything else.

- Gratitude helps us overcome _____.
- Contentment changes how we respond to what we do not have.

FUNDRAISER

9:00AM & 11:00AM

6TH DEC 2026

01 | The Beginning

We raised the first tent with our bare hands, and our journey began in faith.

02 | The Foundation

Through prayer, sacrifice, and willing hands, we laid the foundation and watched the Worship & Community Center rise.

03 | The Legacy

What began under a temporary canvas is becoming a permanent home, an inheritance for the next generation.

Look at how far we've come

Every step has been a testament to God's faithfulness. Every prayer, sacrifice, and willing heart is building a legacy for those who will walk through these doors after us.

What is my Part in the Exodus?

Pray. Listen to the stories. See the vision. Then ask God, "What is my part?" Come with a willing heart, ready to respond!

Fatherhood is a great responsibility. While the bible is clear that husbandhood represents Christ's relationship with the Church (Ephesians 5:25–32), Christ Himself makes another comparison of fathers with our heavenly Father:
"Or which one of you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent? If who are evil, know how to give
